

Inventory Cart

Project
Rollout # 326

Issue Date
3/29/2018

The Inventory Cart is a cart building tool from the customers inventory listing. Instead of picking one item at a time you can drill down to select many items. Once the items are selected you then can then preform different functions such as issue material for the list.

Contact Dataware for more Information regarding our Inventory cart and Implementation.